

Top Priorities for Law Enforcement Today

We polled individuals in the law enforcement industry about their top priorities. Here are the results.

Internal Operations and Workforce

80%

are concerned with recruiting, staffing, and employee retention

Additional concerns:

- employee productivity and connectivity
- streamlining data capture
- digitizing manual workflows

Data-driven Decision Making

57%

believe informed decision making and communication are areas where tech will make the greatest impact on the public sector industry in the next five years

Employee Experience

73%

believe that automation and AI technologies will provide the most positive experience for the public sector workforce

Where technology will make the greatest impact in the next five years

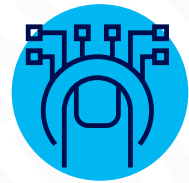

ASSET MANAGEMENT SYSTEMS

Manage all assets and data in one place.

MULTI-FACTOR AUTHENTICATION

Ensure mobile access and protect data.

AUTOMATION

Automate time-consuming, manual processes.

INFORMED DECISION MAKING

Increase situational awareness with live data feeds.

RECRUITING, STAFFING, AND RETENTION

Attract talent by offering the same tech on the job that they use in their personal lives.

EMPLOYEE PRODUCTIVITY/CONNECTIVITY SUPPORT

Voice-to-text solutions can help law enforcement professionals increase productivity in areas like incident reporting.

TO LEARN MORE ABOUT THE SOLUTIONS THAT CAN SUPPORT YOUR AGENCY, VISIT OUR WEBSITE

TOUGHBOOK.com | toughbook@us.panasonic.com | 1.888.245.6344

Panasonic CONNECT

This survey from Panasonic Connect generated 111 responses from individuals in the law enforcement industry conducted in October 2022.

© 2023 Panasonic Connect North America. All rights reserved.

All other trademarks, service marks and company names are the property of the respective owners.